

Thai International Student Counsellor at China Admissions in Shanghai - 5th November 2016

Are you from Thailand, and have you had a great experience studying in China? Are you friendly, sociable, and interested in speaking to students from all over the world to help them come to study in and enjoy China?

As an international student counsellor at China Admissions, you will be speaking to students from all over the world on wechat, skype, email, and helping them to choose and apply to Chinese Universities.

You will also be responsible for growing the Thai market and specifically helping Thai students to come and study in China. Responsible for helping drive marketing campaigns and localise our service to the Thai market.

You will receive full training and have large responsibilities at the start and have potential for future opportunities as we grow.

About China Admissions:

China Admissions is the leading online platform for foreign students to study in China, and helps top Chinese Universities to market internationally and recruit more international students. We are upgrading the application process for foreign students to apply to Chinese Universities.

Currently cooperating with 60 top Chinese Universities, and growing quickly.

www.china-admissions.com

Our vision is to give foreign students access to opportunities to understand, learn about and build their career in the most exciting country in the world. We are driven to build stronger and deeper connections between China and the world.

Benefits

Competitive salary, with bonus, on-going training, and strong career opportunities.

Good Chinese is an advantage but not necessary.

Apply Now

To apply please send CV, covering letter and available dates to:

- careers@chinaadmissions.com